JUNIATA COLLEGE BULLETIN

VOLUME XXXVIII

APRIL, 1941

NO. 2A

Entered February 6, 1904, at Huntingdon, Pa., as second-class matter under Act of Congress of July 16, 1894.

The President Speaks . . . . .

IT was a matter of more than usual interest to Mrs. Ellis and myself to recognize that we have recently attended in succession two Juniata reunions whose distance spans the continent. On January seventh in Los Angeles, California we had the privilege of meeting with a small group of Juniatians on the Pacific Coast, who were but representative of a much larger group who now make their home along the Pacific seaboard.

Almost exactly two months later, we met with one hundred and twenty of our alumni and friends in Philadelphia at the First Church of the Brethren. The night was "dark and stormy" but nothing dampened the ardor of the enthusiastic group that gathered in this church whose pastorate and membership have made such noteworthy contribution to the personnel and also to the financial structure of the College.

These proximate experiences forcibly reminded us of the early prophecy of Dr. A. B. Brumbaugh who was ridiculed for saying that the day would come when our institution would be known "from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Lakes to Gulf." But the one thing that impressed us most on both sides of the continent was the fine quality of those who acknowledged their allegiance to the College, so that we realized, not only that Juniata is known, but favorably known, across the continent, and indeed across the world.

On our part we were glad to assure these friends, many of whom have not been on College Hill for years, that not only has the physical plant been expanded but our scholastic standing has also become more widely recognized. Nevertheless, we are also earnestly striving to realize the dream of the founders, not merely because it set high the goal of our educational endeavor, but also because there has never been a day when it was more important to hold aloft the torch of Christian education than today.

It is a pleasure to acknowledge the many courtesies extended to us in places widely scattered, and to assure these friends one and all of our earnest desire as we cross the line of our sixty-fifth anniversary to be worthy not only of the dream of the Founders, but of the expectations of the ever-expanding group of our alumni and friends.

Founders' Day

IN recognition of the sixty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the College a special exercise was held in the old chapel on the morning of April twenty-third. The actual Founders Day of course is April seventeenth, but this happened to fall during the Easter recess.

The invocation was made by Dr. Galen B. Royer, '83, '22, '24. The address was delivered by Dr. Gaius M. Brumbaugh, the President of the Board of Trustees, and a member of the first graduating class of the Brethren's Normal College. Dr. Brumbaugh is a vital link with the actual founders of the College, and there was an unusual appropriateness to these exercises in the old chapel where hang today the portraits of Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, and Dr. I. Harvey Brumbaugh, two of the men who builded so well upon the foundations laid in the early days of the institution.

President Ellis Honored

PRESIDENT Charles C. Ellis was honored by receiving the degree LL. D. from Bridgewater College on Friday, April 5, when he spoke there at a testimonial dinner held for Dr. J. S. Flory, President Emeritus of Bridgewater, in connection with Bridgewater's Homecoming and Founders' Day celebration over that week-end. Dr. Ellis attended these occasions as President of the General Education Board of the Church of the Brethren as well as of Juniata College. Mr. Everett Shober, AB '28, Registrar of Bridgewater College, presented President Ellis for his degree.

Selective Service Act

AT the December meeting of the Association of American Colleges, an organization of college administrative officers representing some 400 colleges, it was approved unanimously that they should take some action toward an attempt to save college students from being drafted under the Selective Service Act during the middle of a college year.

Acting with this in mind, the Association adopted the following statement: "It is the judgment of the Association of American Colleges that the best interests of the total national defense require that the policy provided for the present Selective Training and Service Act of permitting college and university students to defer the call for military training and service until July 1, 1941 be extended by the Congress so that during the continuance of peacetime conscription regularly enrolled college and university students may complete the academic year in which they may be subject to call."

This is not a request to grant deferment until the student has completed his entire college course, but merely a request that if any student is called in the middle of a college year that he be given permission to complete his year's course. It applies only to peace time conscription.

COMMENCEMENT . . . . .

"Friends of the Library"

The fifth annual tea for the Friends of the Juniata College Library will be held this year on Saturday afternoon, May thirty-first, from 3:30 to 5 o'clock. All alumni, as well as "Friends", are cordially invited to attend this function in the Library where a program of unusual interest will be arranged.

The outstanding progress made by the College this year in receiving the recognition of the Association of American Universities for the quality of its academic work suggests new emphasis on the basic working collection of books in the College Library in order to further the standard of work carried on by faculty and students.

Consequently Miss Evans plans to re-examine carefully the book collection in each major field of study, with emphasis on a special field each year. The first division to claim attention will be that of literature. It is hoped that additional standard and definitive works can be placed in the library; that more fine sets of the best authors will gradually find their way to the shelves; and that the best editions of books, from the standpoint of scholarship, will replace not only the worn, but less important editions.

To place emphasis on a particular phase of library service is not a new idea for the annual tea. It will be remembered that last year the work done by Mr. Gerhard Friedrich, special research librarian, with the rare books of the Vault Collection was the feature of the program. The year before Mr. Will Judy, Chicago publisher and outstanding Juniatian, talked on "The Making of a Book." This year Dr. Claude R. Flory, of the Class of 1929, who is chairman of the English Department of Washington and Jefferson College, will talk on the fundamental importance of a fine collection of literature in the work of the liberal arts college. Dr. Flory has done his advanced work at the University of Pennsylvania and at Oxford University in England.

OLLER HALL ADDS ATTRACTION TO WEEK-END OF ACTIVITIES JUNE 1 - 2

Commencement Activities

A new and beautiful auditorium with adequate facilities for larger graduation week-end gatherings will enrich the enjoyment of the commencement program. Although the character does change somewhat, traditionally, alumni will recognize every feature of the week-end as a Juniata function.

DEAN WALLACE BRETT DONHAM

The former commencement sites on the Court of the Cloister, the Gymnasium and the Stone Church all give way to Oller Hall. The exercises this year, recognizing one hundred graduates who have earned either an A. B. or B. S. degree, will feature Dean Wallace Brett Donham of Harvard University as the speaker. Dr. Donham is the Dean of the Graduate School of Business Administration and will come to Juniata through the arrangement of his assistant, John Baker '17 member of the Juniata College board of Trustees.

Orchestra Concert

THE annual spring concert of the Juniata College Orchestral Society will be given on Friday evening May 30, at 8:15 in Oller Hall. Mr. S. Turner Jones will conduct. A feature on this program will be vocal duets by Mr. and Mrs. William Blough of the class of 1936.

The program includes: Beethoven--Egmont Overture. Hayden--London Symphony. Intermission. Warlock--Capriol Suite. Sibelius--Valse Trista. Soloists (really duets). Rimsky-Korsakoff --Lithuanian Dance.

The Messiah

THE Messiah will be sung by the college choir on Sunday evening, June 1st. The new Oller Hall offers facilities making it possible for this presentation to be the best oratorio concert in Juniata's history. It provides ample stage room for a large chorus and comfortable seating for nearly nine hundred people.

The new Moller organ, one of the finest in the state of Pennsylvania, and the new Steinway concert grand piano will provide unusually fine accompaniment for the large chorus.

The soloists will be selected largely from the present graduating class.

The Play

POSSIBLY the only significant change from the traditional commencement program is in the Shakespeare play since the cast this year will also contain actors from the underclasses. This revision was made to relieve the seniors from a major undertaking. The play, "The Tempest" will be directed by Dr. Harold C. Binkley, professor of English, and will be presented in Oller Hall on Saturday evening at 8:15. Of particular interest to the play-goers is the fact that there will be the appropriate Elizabethan vocal and instrumental music supplementing the action on the stage. The costumes are provided by the Home Economics Department. "The Tempest" was last produced on the Juniata Campus in 1929.

ALUMNI DAY

FULL DAY OF ALUMNI AFFAIRS SET FOR SATURDAY, MAY 31 . . .

THE day's program opens with a meeting of the Alumni's Executive Committee meeting at 9:30 in the President's office. At 11:00 all alumni are invited to the annual meeting of the association in the chapel. The highlight of the day's program centers around the alumni luncheon in the college dining hall at 12 noon. This program includes alumni president William S. Livengood, Jr., and his college room-mate, William R. Flory. Mr. Flory is president of the Glenoble Hotels, Inc., with headquarters at Harrisburg. The luncheon is in honor of the graduating class of 1941 and recognition will be given to the reunion classes of "1's" and "6's". Juniata's popular trio, the "Three Chirps" and the varsity mixed quartet will sing. A baseball game and library tea will be the features of the afternoon.

CLASS REUNIONS

The five year classes across the years from '81 to '41 are honored over the Commencement season in special reunion programs on Saturday, May 31.

'81

Mrs. Jennie C Baker will be the sixty year class honor guest at the Alumni Day luncheon.

'86

Miss Ida Mae Pecht will entertain the fifty-five year reunion class.

'96

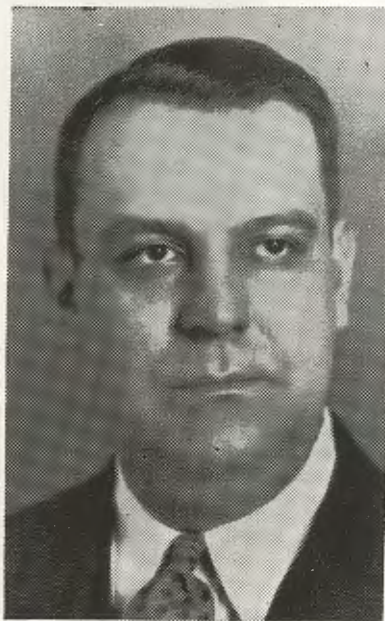

CR, Dr. C. V. Mierley, has planned for a Saturday evening dinner in the Hotel Penn-Hunt (formerly Leister House).

'01

For the forty year reunion, Harry Wagner calls for all old Juniata Albums from '01 class members for the fun of slipping back through the years in the evening of May 31 at a dinner engagement being planned for with the help of Sam. M. Gehrett and Mrs. Charles E. Skean. The place—Water Street Inn.

'06

On week-end trips from Pittsburgh to Huntingdon, Emory Zook is making reunion plans with Sam Hess, who is in charge of local arrangements. It will be a Saturday evening dinner affair.

Luncheon Speaker—Bill Flory '21

'11

Lewis S. Knepper promises a thirty year reunion to match all former class of '11 reunions when the members will gather at Mr. Lee Coffman's farm for a picnic supper.

'16

Professor J. Clyde Stayer will manage the quarter century reunion with the class representative, J. Foster Gehrett, working by remote control.

'21

The happenings of twenty-nine class members over a two decade span from 1921 should give much to talk about on May 31. Make the social rooms your headquarters and a dinner party will be planned.

'26

The residence of Dr. and Mrs. Calvert N. Ellis will be the scene of the fifteen year class reunion on Saturday evening, May 31, when the members will be entertained for the reunion supper. The class committee on local reunion plans is composed of Mrs. Calvert N. Ellis, P. M. Snider, Sam Stewart, Newton Taylor, and CR, Elvin Hess.

'31

Plans for the tenth reunion of the class of 1931 are beginning to take definite form with a dinner on Saturday evening, May 31, as the feature of the week-end. One or two other things are planned for both Saturday and Sunday, for a large representation of the class is expected back. The committee in charge of CR, Lillian Harbaugh as chairman, is anxious to make the program as varied and interesting as possible, not only from the standpoint of seeing campus progress but to have news of every member of the class.

With President Maxwell, Representative Kyper, and Assistants Katherine and Helen Hooper, and Jean Sollenbarger Pheasant cooperating for the five year reunion, it should be a real occasion on Saturday evening, May 31. The place selected for the 6:30 dinner is the Hotel Penn-Hunt (formerly Leister House). All reservations should be made through the "newly engaged to be married" Donald Kyper, Huntingdon.

'38 - '39 - '40

Enthusied about the very attractive and popular site for a reunion for all recent grads, the class representatives Mel Rhodes for '38, Tom Garner for '39 and Charles C. Ellis for '40 have reserved the Moon Bar Ranch, twenty minutes from Huntingdon, as Saturday evening headquarters for dinner and an enjoyable evening of entertainment. All reservations should be mailed to your own class representative or to the alumni office.

Local Reunion Dinners . . . . .

THE 1941 Local Alumni Association Banquet season shows record-breaking attendance figures — indicating a renewed interest in alumni affairs. These successes are due not only to the splendid arrangements and efficient planning of this year's organizations, but also to a growing enthusiasm in Juniata activities.

Huntingdon

The localities opened on February 24 with the largest attendance in the 14 years of its history with 155 present. The Rev. John T. Peters of the Huntingdon Presbyterian Church spoke while the Three Chirps added entertainment. Vice President James Weimer presided in the absence of President Samuel Gehrett, southern vacationist.

New officers elected are:

President, James Weimer; Vice President, Gilbert McKlveen; 2nd Vice President, Don Guisler; Secretary, Mrs. C. C. Pheasant; Treasurer, Marjorie Kurtz.

Bedford

The Loysburg Grange Hall was the scene of Bedford County's "largest gathering in years" where 65 met to hear Dr. Calvert N. Ellis and the Three Chirps from the college. Juniata's responsible for the next year functions are:

President, Thomas H. Knepp; Vice President, Paul S. Hoover; Secretary, Florence G. Ritchey (2 years); Treasurer, Ellis W. Van Horn (3 years).

Executive Committee: Joseph W. Howe, 3 year term; Charles D. Sproul, 2 year term; Rev. C. O. Beery, 1 year term.

Philadelphia

It was a rough and stormy night in Philadelphia on March 8, but a total of 121 Juniata's found their way through snow to the First Church of the Brethren to hear President Ellis, the Three Chirps and George Sheffer '41 from the college. The officers asked for a good old fashioned get together and they had it. It was fun even for prospective Juniata's. They trust their plans for next year in the following officers:

Alumni gathering from coast to coast attract many alumni and friends

Pres. Ellis, Pittsburgh, R. G. Rankin, Alumni Pres. Livengood and Speaker Whitney Pittsburgh Alumni Dinner, March 28

President, Mr. Percy A. Rowland; Vice President, Dr. Miles Murphy; Secretary, Christine R. Conners; Treasurer, Roy Wolfgang.

Executive Committee: Mrs. Isabel Caulton, Messrs. Wilmer C. Berg, Raymond Ellis, Jesse Stayer, George Weber.

Harrisburg

The Central Pennsylvanians exceeded any former record by twenty in their meeting in the Hershey Community Inn. President Bill was on hand for a warm Juniata talk, and Mike Snider did the honor for the campus representative. '36's Bill Blough sang several solos. Unique was the greeting which all received when the ladies were presented with gardenias and the men roses. Next year the officers are:

President, Mr. Robert Patrick; Vice President, Mr. Melvin Wenger; Secretary, Mrs. Eula Guthrie Fyock.

Executive Committee: Mr. William Harley, 3 years; Miss Elizabeth Engler, 2 years; Mr. J. Hylton Reber, 1 year.

Pittsburgh

At the speakers' table at Pittsburgh were found such personalities as President Ellis, Alumni President Livengood, Local President and Mrs. Ned Rankin, Trustee and Mrs. Horner, Dr. and Mrs. Whitney of the Pittsburgh Schools, Alumni Secretary Brumbaugh, and Sam Repogle. Others in the College Club's beautiful dining hall on March 28 were alumni, parents of present students, future Juniata's, the Three Chirps and a campus duet. Total: a record breaking 110 count. The new officers are:

President, Ned Rankin; Vice President, Dr. Claude Flory; Secretary, B. A. Bennett; Treasurer, Roy Guyer.

Cleveland

It was the twentieth anniversary of the Juniata Alumni Association of Northeastern Ohio that called in the Acadia Country Club in Cleveland more than fifty Alumni to hear President Ellis and President Bill Livengood. Joseph A. Crowell who knew his subject because he had never missed a Juniata Alumni reunion gave a talk titled, "After Twenty Years." Lucille Harley played a piano solo. Their new officers are:

President, Mr. Joshua D. Reber; Vice President, Mr. Merl F. Garner; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Preston Hanawalt.

The Alumni Spotlight . . . . .

FARMER, teacher, inventor, engineer, lawyer—jack of all trades and a success at each and every one. This, in a nutshell, is D. Ben Replogle, certainly one of the most versatile men ever to graduate from Juniata and one who has crammed more things into one lifetime than an ordinary person could do in several.

D. BENSON REPROGLE

The old Brethren Normal College had graduated its first class just one year before this Bedford County lad enrolled in the spring of 1880. His life had been far from dull before this though. Born in Martinsburg in 1893, Replogle had gone to school in Waterside and in the Kishacoquillas Valley, had done some teaching in Mifflin County, and had peddled tea among the Big Valley Amish to earn pocket money.

During the summer vacation from College he sold United States maps and by 1883 had several agents working under him. Further accomplishments were his after his graduation from Juniata. Returning to teaching he was principal of Madison Academy for two years. Here he met and married Miss Ida Silvius. Then followed in rapid succession teaching posts in New Milford, Mt. Pleasant, and Scranton. The more lucrative task of selling insurance lured Mr. Replogle from school teaching, and he devoted his time to this before entering Dickinson Law School in 1892. A serious blow, in the form of his wife's death, befell Mr. Replogle then, but he carried out a promise to her by graduating from Dickinson in 1893.

Specializing in patent law, he opened practice in Scranton, and handled all the work for the Replogle Governor Works, a firm founded by his inventor brother, Mark. In 1894 he married Miss Belle Trumbull, a former pupil of his. A decade later this irrepressible adventurer journeyed to California, learned that a business in which he had invested all his money had burned down, and set about to make his living where he was. Turning to surveying and engineering, he worked for the Arrowhead Reservoir Company for a few months, then went back to his old profession of teaching. Shortly afterward he accepted a position as engineer for the western states with his brother's firms, and began selling and installing Mark's products all over that part of the country. Undaunted by the great San Francisco earthquake and its effect upon his business, Mr. Replogle made a great success of this job. It was when his brother's plant was completely ruined by fire in 1909 that he entered the industry through which he became famous—the manufacture of vacuum cleaners.

At first a salesman for a small Michigan concern, Replogle soon developed a better form of cleaner—known as Pneumode or Air-Way. Replogle was able to fight off the big business concerns and to start to manufacture his cleaner at Toledo, Ohio, in 1914. From that time on the Air-Way Corporation has flourished.

In 1919 Mr. Replogle and Mr. Munson H. Lane established a patent law office in Washington, D. C., that is still operating. Several of Mr. Replogle's important patents, most of them concerning air cleaning and ventilating, are still pending in Washington.

These facts stated here are only the highlights in the eventful career that has been Mr. Replogle's. They do not tell of his numerous trips to Europe and other parts of the world. Throughout his life Mr. Replogle has been associated with famous men from all walks of life, a host too

WILLARD K. WISE

WILLARD K. Wise, member of Juniata's Class of 1909, and Vice President of the Provident Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, is one of the increasingly large group of insurance executives who rose from the ranks of the agency force and took every step of the way in full stride.

Born in Philadelphia, his mother died when he was two years old, and he went to live with his grandparents on a farm in Chester County. He attended country school, showed unusual capacity, and was graduated from Pottstown High School at the age of 16.

He matriculated at Juniata College, where he took a business course in addition to one year of college work. After leaving college he went to work as a clerk in the Citizens National Bank of Pottstown, Pennsylvania, from which he stepped into the position of cashier in a bank at Bally, Pennsylvania, which he helped to organize.

While he was working in the bank he became attracted to Franklin C. Morss of the Provident Life and Trust Company, who later became the Company's Manager of Agencies, but was then a licensed agent of the company. Mr. Morss so well convinced Mr. Wise of the Merit of the Provident that the latter not only bought a policy but entered the business as a Provident agent under the firm of Scott and Stratton, whose territory embraced all of eastern Pennsylvania except metropolitan Philadelphia.

First he became associate general agent, then partner of the firm, with headquarters in Reading. In 1916 he became sole general agent, and as such made one of the most brilliant records ever established by any Provident agency head. In 1937 he was elected to his present position as Vice President and has charge of all the company's agencies from coast to coast.

Social work has always attracted Mr. Wise's sympathetic attention, and he has been very active in this work. He was a member of the Board of the Hope Rescue Mission, of the Homeopathic Hospital in Reading, and of the Reading Chamber of Commerce. For several years he was president of the Social Welfare League and was one of the organizers of the Community Chest and the Children's Aid Society of Berks County.

During the period of the depression he was for a time administrator of the Emergency Relief organization of Reading, which he helped to establish.

Mr. Wise was recently elected a member of the Board of Directors of Hood College. He is a member of the Church of the Brethren and is also a member of the Wyomissing Club, the Berkshire Country Club, the University Club, and the Union League of Philadelphia. He is married, and has two children, one of whom, Willard K. Wise, Jr., is following his father's footsteps as an agent of the Provident in New York City. The other, a daughter, is Mrs. Thomas Mullen of Reading. Mr. Wise resides at 128 Buck Lane, Haverford, Pennsylvania—that is, when he is not on one of his frequent business trips or up in central Pennsylvania enjoying his best-loved sport of fishing.

numerous to recount. But no matter what degree of success or failure he faced, Mr. Replogle has remained a true adherent to the Brethren faith and a loyal supporter of his beloved Juniata.

AROUND THE CAMPUS

Fine Arts Festival

Art

Dr. Julius Held, a teacher and lecturer on Art at Barnard College, Columbia University and a teacher at the Institute of Fine Arts of New York University, lectured on Flemish and Dutch Art in the Juniata College Chapel on Friday, April 4, at 8:15 o'clock, as the opening event of the Fine Arts Festival which was held over the week-end of April 4-6. Beginning with van Dyck and de Hooch, he included later artists such as Brengel, van Eyck, Memling, Reubens, and Rembrandt. The use of a double lantern slide made comparative studies of the different artists possible. This lecture was held in conjunction with the exhibition of some fifty paintings by Dutch and Flemish masters of the fifteenth, sixteenth, and seventeenth centuries in the Pennsylvania Room of the Library. This exhibit was on display from April 1 - 10.

Play

The Masquers' second semester play, "Her Husband's Wife," by A. E. Thomas, which was presented on April 5 as Saturday evenings' feature of the Fine Arts Festival was very well received by a near capacity audience in Oller Hall. It was undoubtedly the largest audience ever to attend a Masquers' production.

Miss Betty Graybill must be congratulated on directing another first-rate play, while the cast is likewise to be commended for their capable representation of their roles.

Music

Music was emphasized on Sundays' of the Fine Arts Festival in an afternoon musical program, which included a fifteen minute organ recital by William Wagner, a violin solo by Edwin Hahn, a piano solo by Lorma Ruble, and a short concert by the Juniata College Choir. At 8:15 P. M. a chorus of 175 voices sang Stainer's "Crucifixion" to an over-capacity crowd. Included in this

Dr. KEIRNS

Testimonial Dinner

On the evening of the Founders' Day celebration the College gave a testimonial dinner to two members of the faculty who are coming to their retirement this year. The dinner was sponsored by the College Trustees and the Faculty Club and was held in honor of Dr. Fayette A. McKenzie, Professor of Sociology, and Dr. Elizabeth Keirns, Professor of Classical Languages. Dr. McKenzie is reaching the retirement age after two periods of service in the College, about twenty years in all, and Dr. Keirns is retiring after a service covering the period from 1929 to date.

President Ellis presided at the dinner. Professor Margaret McCrimmon spoke in appreciation of Dr. Keirns and Professor Charles S. Shively gave a brief address in recognition of Dr. McKenzie and his service to the College.

The Faculty Club made an appropriate presentation to each of the guests of honor and with their response and the concluding remarks of the President of the College this very delightful evening was brought to a close.

group were the choirs of nine Huntingdon churches plus the fifty voices of the Juniata Choir. The group was under the direction of Professor Charles L. Rowland. Outstanding soloist was Mr. William Blough, B. S. '36, who is now an instructor of voice in the William Penn High School at Harrisburg. Mrs. Wm. Blough B. S. '36, pianist, accompanied the choir along with Mr. William Wagner, organist.

ONE HUNDRED CLUB

Doubtless one of the most encouraging aspects of the alumni program is the financial security offered through the ONE HUNDRED CLUB. Charter membership closed on June 15, 1940 with a list of twenty-nine friends of the college pledged to contribute annually one hundred dollars or more. In that first year, these members contributed a total of $7,831.97 which amounted to an average of $270.07 per member.

As the influence of this fund raising activity grows so will the future usefulness of Juniata College increase. The present membership includes:

Mr. and Mrs. Donovan R. Beachley
W. L. Brougher
Dr. Gaius M. Brumbaugh
Norman J. Brumbaugh
Mr. and Mrs. Calvert N. Ellis

JUNIATA COLLEGE

SON COLLEGE HILL

MAY DAY

May Day is becoming more and more popular as a day for alumni to return to the campus. A large crowd of combined alumni and high school visitors is expected this year to enjoy the full day's program provided for May 10. This program includes campus tours and class room visits for the high school visitors in the morning, a variety program, and a tennis match between Elizabethtown and Juniata, besides the regular May Day program.

May Day this year is an adaptation of Nathaniel Hawthorn's, "Maypole of Merry Mount". The story concerns the celebration of Mid-summer's Eve by the early settlers of Mount Wollaston or "Merry Mount" with masques, mummeries, and the festive customs of the age. While they are thus occupied, a group of Puritans, who frown upon such barbaric customs arrive on the scene, tear down the May Pole, capture as prisoners the leaders of the celebration and stalk off into the forest.

Miss Betty Fleck, director of women's athletics, with Miss Helen Rankin, chairman of the May Day committee, is working out the details of the program.

Notice!!!

Admission to Commencement Play, Oratorio, Baccalaureate Service, and Commencement Exercises will be by ticket only.

All tickets are complimentary. Write to the Alumni Secretary.

Alumni Day Luncheon

JUNIATA COLLEGE Alumni Association

April 1941

Dear Fellow Juniataans:

The existing National emergency presents two grave problems to a College like ours. The first is the problem of enrollment and the danger of its decline as a result of the selective service act and the attractiveness of jobs offered in industry. The second is the almost universal attack being made upon Democracy and its institutions, among which the small Liberal Arts Church Colleges are numbered.

Those who would destroy Christian education and constitutional Democracy must destroy colleges like Juniata, where such principles are taught. This destruction can only be prevented by giving our loyal and undivided support as individuals, citizens and Christians to the principles themselves and by seeing that the young people upon whom the future of these principles will depend are educated in their processes and dedicated to their preservation.

Your duty and mine is to see that a sufficient number of young men and women enter Juniata College for the coming year. Thus at one stroke we will not only maintain enrollment, which is the heart of the College, but we will also continue the propagation of the philosophy, which is her soul.

May I therefore call upon each of you to assist the officials of the College in their great work by sending to them boys and girls of the type they need to meet this crisis.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM S. LIVENGOD, JR.

Fashion Show

The Lambda Gamma Club Style Show, "Just Looking, Thanks", was very favorably received by a large crowd of students, townspeople, and week-end guests in Oller Hall, Saturday evening, March 22. Featuring previews of the latest in women's and men's clothing for all occasions, the sequences of the show were run off in an interesting manner, aided by excellent settings and lighting effects, to make it undoubtedly the best of its kind ever to be held at Juniata College.

Summer Session

The regular nine weeks summer session will be held this year as in the past. It will run from June 16 to August 15 with the latter being the date of the commencement. Courses offered are very similar to last year's program, although interested persons should write to Paul R. Yoder, the director, for a bulletin to ascertain the definite courses given. Major change in the faculty will be the addition of Miss Lillian Harbaugh, A. B. '31 and assistant librarian, as Dean of Women in the place of Mrs. Helen Crawford Oellig who was married last summer.

The Juniata Sports Parade

Baseball

Coach "Carty" Swartz opened his 1941 baseball season early in March with a call to all batterymen to warm up in the gym. Since the diamond has dried off, the boys have been at work in earnest for their opening game with American University, here, on April 24. Gaps left in the infield by the graduation of Captain Bergstresser, catcher, Paul Valigorsky, shortstop, and Regis Walters, third baseman, will have to be filled before the team meets their initial opponent. Freshmen Mickey Leeper and Cletus Corle are the leading contenders for the job behind the plate, while Jim Bottiecher, who took over third after Walters was forced to do the catching, is making a strong bid to hold the position again this year.

Last year's pitching staff is returning intact, Cassel, Irvin, Minaya, and Reklis and will be aided by the newcomers Frye and Frick. These men will also work in the outfield. Querry is an outstanding contender for an outfield berth along with the veterans Simkins, Siemon, and Cooper. Only Reigner was lost from last year's outfield. Hen Eisenhart is a strong contender for either outfield or first sack positions.

Hard-hitting Ed Grega, captain and second baseman, and Lefty Leopold, who will hold down either the first sack or an outfield berth will probably be the leading hitters of this 1941 nine that will miss the hitting of Valigorsky, Bergstresser, and Walters.

Track

The Juniata track team has been conditioning for the past month in preparation for a tough schedule which includes three dual meets, one triangular meet, the Penn Relays, and the Middle Atlantic Games. Beginning indoors for their initial workouts, the team is now working out on the college track. Handicapped by the return of only three lettermen, Coach Snider hopes, however, to pull a few surprises from his squad of twenty-seven, which is composed mostly of freshmen. The returning lettermen are, Pentz, high and broad jump, Noffsinger, distance runner, and Thorn, hurdles. Nettleton, an experienced quarter-miler, is also out. Very unfortunate for the team is the loss of the services of both the co-captains, George Sheffer and Bob Mitchell. Mitchell injured his elbow at the end of last year's track season, while Sheffer received a leg injury in the early part of the football season from which he has not fully recovered. Both of these men have been drafted as assistant coaches and are helping the team in this way. The track schedule is as follows:

April 22—Washington .....	Here
April 25—
April 26—Penn Relays .....	Away
May 3—Susquehanna Univ. ....	Here
	American Univ.
May 9—
May 10—Middle Atlantics .....	Away

Tennis

With only Captain Bob Boyd lost from last year's squad, the Juniata tennis team should make a favorable showing this year. Returning veterans, Captain Bob Barben, Stewart, Ayres, Grif-fith, and Gehrett, will be aided by several likely freshmen prospects, Hunt and Holsinger appearing among the better of these from early season workouts in the gymnasium. The team will move to the courts as soon as the weather permits to prepare for its opening match with Susquehanna on April 30. Coach Snider feels that he will have a good season if the veterans continue to improve as in former seasons.

Hubert B. Landis, N. E. '94, a prominent administrator in Northern Louisiana, passed away at his home in Winnsboro, La. on January 14, just 12 days before his seventieth birthday. Mr. Landis' death was the result of recurrent attacks of flu, although his condition had not been thought serious. Mr. Landis was mayor of Winnsboro, and was an active leader in many organizations for the improvement of the district. He was president of the Northeast Louisiana Power Cooperation, Inc., of the Farmers Cooperative Gin Company, and of the Winnsboro Federal Land Association. Mr. Landis is survived by his wife, three daughters, three brothers, and a sister. His wife, the former Miss Effie Coppock, was also a Juniata graduate, N. E. '94. One of his brothers, B. S. Landis, president of the Winnsboro State Bank, was a Juniata graduate of the class of 1891. His sister, Mrs. Isaphine Stewart, Huntingdon, received her degree in Music from Juniata in 1908.

A busy life has been that of Rev. J. Way Huey since he left Juniata. After taking additional college work at Washington and Jefferson and at the Western Theological Seminary, Rev. Huey was pastor in various Presbyterian churches in North Dakota from 1907 to 1925. In 1926 he was appointed Sunday School Missionary under the Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian Church and has held that position ever since. He has four sons and one daughter. His first son is a teacher-coach in a Washington High School, his second is in the insurance business, his third is on the faculty at Texas A. & M. College, and his fourth is doing welfare work. Rev. Huey's daughter is connected with the Seminary Avenue Federated Church in Chicago.

After a highly successful career as a teacher and principal in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, Jesse L. Hunsberger is now working as a salesman for National Press of Chicago. He has been connected with this company since 1935. While he was teaching, Mr. Hunsberger did graduate work at Ursinus College, Johns Hopkins University, and the University of Pennsylvania. His present address is 133 West St., Woodbury, N. J.

Approximately 200 foresters and workers from all over the state feted George H. Wirt, N. E., '98, at a party in celebration of his fortieth year of forest service with the state. The party took place in the offices of the Department of Forests and Waters in Harrisburg on April 1. Mr. Wirt is chief forest fire warden for his department. The first state forester, he began his work in 1901. In 1903 he started the State Forestry School at Mt. Alto, and a few years later inaugurated the first State Nursery there. He was named State Forester in 1910. In 1915 he began the forest protective work and has carried on ever since. Mr. Wirt received an honorary Master of Science degree from Juniata in 1928.

On Friday, March 28, 1941 death claimed Dr. Nellie Wright Bartram, N. E. '98, a prominent alumnae. Dr. Wright is survived by two brothers, J. H. Wright, Bus. '04, and Commander P. T. Wright, N. E. '05, and a sister, Dr. Gladys (Wright) Newlin, Bus. '09. Her nephew, Thomas Wright, is a senior at Juniata now. Services and interment took place in Huntingdon on April 1. Dr. C. C. Ellis, Dr. N. J. Brumbaugh, and Harold Brumbaugh represented the college at the funeral.

Mr. ('01) and Mrs. Samuel Gehrett (Ada Householder, ex'07) returned early this month from an extended trip through the South and Middle West. On the trip they visited such noted cities as Washington, Williamsburg, Miami, and Nashville. They spent several weeks enjoying the Florida sunshine. The latter part of their trip was spent in Bloomington, Indiana, visiting their daughter, Jane.

On January 5, 1941, John William Oates, chief engineer of the Masonic homes at Elizabethtown, died in the Lancaster General Hospital of a heart attack. He was 65 years old. A resident of Huntingdon County most of his life, Mr. Oates had been associated with the C. H. Miller Hardware Company and the J. Murray Africa Engineering Company before going to Elizabethtown. He had also worked with Dr. C. V. Mierley, '96, and Harry Wagner, '07, in the building and management of the Hotel Huntingdon and Hotel Lewistown. Prominent in Masonic circles, he was past-master of two lodges. Mr. Oates leaves no immediate survivors.
